I. Opening Remarks

The meeting was called to order at 1:00 p.m. by Committee Chair Espino.

II. Action/Discussion Items

A. Update on the Revision of the City's Standard Construction Specifications: Doug Rademaker, P.E., Deputy Director of Planning & Development Department and Glenn Gary, P.E., of Kimley-Horn and Associates, Inc.

Mr. Rademaker introduced Mr. Glenn Gary, Christina Johnson the Planning & Development project manager, Larry Jackson and Troy Jackson of Jackson Construction, Troy Woody of Tri-Tech, and Dan McClendon of McClendon Construction.

Mr. Gary reported on the Phase 1 accomplishments and recommended Phase 2 work which will be the final step in providing the City with effective construction contract documents. The five Integrated Program Management (IPM) goals have been achieved: expedited delivery of projects; increased project delivery capacity; more qualified bidders on projects; increased project delivery transparency; and, national recognition as a leader in municipal project delivery. The IPM consultant determined it is critical for the City to make immediate improvements to bidding documents: multiple documents are presently used across the City; documents are confusing/antiquated; and, existing documents contributing to reduce contractor interest/participation and increased project costs.

Proposed Phase 2 Scope: Details – City-wide project details are out-dated and do not conform with the new specifications; Standard Bid Item List – Update the standard bid item to conform with the new specifications; Standard Projects List – Create one list for the entire City; a cross-departmental committee will be formed to manage the list; and, Document Training – Training for City Staff, Consultants and Contractors for document assembly and construction administration. Benefits of Phase 2: More contracts bidding City projects; Better bid prices due to less risk; More durable projects; Fewer change orders; Improved schedule adherence; Improved constructability; and, Anticipated long term cost savings for the City. The anticipated project cost for Phase 2 is $884,700 to be shared by four departments and will take 9 months to complete.

Mr. Rademaker said the next step will be to request the City Council to consider approval of a contract for additional professional services to complete the Phase 2 work on May 24th.

CM Espino asked if there were any questions from the Committee for Mr. Rademaker. CM Burns stated that he was very pleased with the accomplishments and he thanked the contractors for giving their time to meet with the Committee.

CM Espino asked if there were any objections to moving forward with Phase 2 on May the 24th; there were none. He thanked the members of the contracting community for their participation, and partnering with the City in this project. CM Espino asked that when Phase 2 was completed and when this project was in full operation that he be given a report on the length of time it takes to complete a street from start to finish. He also thanked Mr. Rademaker and Mr. Gary for their report.

B. Fort Worth's Public Art (FWPA) Mid-Year Update: Martha Peters, Vice President of Public Art, Arts Council of Fort Worth & Tarrant County.

Ms. Peters reported on a number of projects which were completed in 2011: Blue Lines by Ralph Helmick; Freedom Train by Jeff Gottfried; FWPA: Artist & the City which is a gallery display by several artists; Night Song by Connie Arismendi and Laura Garanzuay; and, Fire Station #27 by Tomm Orr and Frances Bagley.

Projects still in progress include: the Equestrian Multi-Purpose Center Mosaic Murals at Will Rogers Memorial Center by Mike Mandel; a Condition Assessment of the Six Exhibition Barn Murals at Will Rogers Memorial Center; committed Conservation of the Al Hayne Monument (1893); and the Avenue of Light on Lancaster will have all the lights being reprogrammed. Regarding the Avenue of Light, Ms. Peters said criteria will be developed to determine for what kinds of events would be appropriate for the colors of light being shown to coincide with what the City is representing. The Committee's input will be requested when criteria is developed. Ms. Peters had heard the Water Garden was also working on a set of criteria for its lighting.

The Community ID is in process is underway with District's 2 and 9. These two districts are eligible for two new projects. The FWPA have been receiving a number of proposals which will be considered. The new two projects will begin this summer.

Ms. Peters stated the Mural Program is in its second year. CM Jordan reported that this Program was great idea and will obviously be part of the Graffiti Abatement Program. He added it will bring unity to the Community Center which is across from Southwest High School. An artist has been recommended with the Art Council's approval. Ms. Peters added the Art Council did approve the recommended artist.

CM Espino asked if there were any questions. He thanked Ms. Peters for the report.

III. Request for Future Agenda Items

There were no requests for future agenda items.

1. Presentation of the Fort Worth Fire Department Life Saving Award

Mayor Moncrief stated that there were many kinds of heroes in the world-- political heroes, who stood up for what was right even if it was not popular; military heroes, who put their lives on the line to defend freedom and, often, to defend those who could not defend themselves and social heroes who fought for change and the greater good and sacrificed to make the world a better place for everyone. He added that there were everyday heroes, such as parents, teachers, public safety officials and so many others who quietly made a difference in citizen's daily lives. He pointed out that each type of hero represented people who recognized that action was needed and, in most cases, selflessly stepped up to face those challenges. He stated that the City was honored to have the privilege of recognizing real-life heroes who saw neighbors in need. He added that they did not wait for someone else to do something; they took action immediately. He further stated that this brief presentation would not repay the gentlemen in full measure for the bravery of their actions, nor would it express the true measure of how heroic they were in those events. He expressed appreciation to Mr. Jeff Harrison and Mr. Peter Cannings for their bravery and stated he was proud to have such true heroes in the City.

Fire Chief Rudy Jackson and Fire Public Information Officer Tim Hardeman presented the Fort Worth Fire Department Life Saving Award to Mr. Harrison and Mr. Cannings, civilians who saved individuals from drowning in the Trinity River at Trinity Park last year. They provided a brief description of the two (2) events that occurred for which the individuals were being recognized. They stated that the City was honored and privileged to recognize these heroes in the community.

Mr. Harrison and Mr. Cannings both expressed appreciation to the Mayor and Council Members and Fire Department staff for the award and stated it was an honor to be recognized for their efforts.

2. Presentation of Proclamation for PetSmart and PetSmart Charities Day

Mayor Moncrief presented a Proclamation for PetSmart and PetSmart Charities Day to Ms. Sue Della Maddalena, Vice President and Executive Director, PetSmart Charities. He stated in 1994, PetSmart Charities was established to create and support programs that saved the lives of homeless pets, raised awareness of companion animal welfare and promoted healthy relationships between people and their pets. He further stated that the City of Fort Worth valued pets and actively pursued adoptive homes for dogs and cats abandoned at the City's animal shelter. He advised that in conjunction with PetSmart Charities, PetSmart and a vital group of local private donors led by local business leaders had established an innovative partnership aimed at increasing shelter pet adoption rates in Fort Worth. He added that this partnership led to a first-of-its-kind municipal shelter pet adoption center located within a PetSmart retail store that was able to operate solely through private donations.

Ms. Maddalena expressed appreciation to the Mayor and Council Members for the Proclamation and recognized Mr. Bill Boecker, President and CEO, Fine Line Diversified Development in Fort Worth, who led the private donor group. SUBJECT: June 2011 – Sales Tax Update

In response to the volatile nature of sales tax revenue, the Staff is committed to providing you a brief update of the sales tax collections. The Texas Comptroller's Office posted results on June 7th. The results are dependent upon the timeliness and accuracy of sales tax payers' returns. This payment from the State represents taxes collected on sales that occurred primarily in April and in prior months. In this report, you will see our sales tax collection compared to last year and the impact on the current year's budget.

MONTHLY SALES TAX COLLECTIONS FOR APRIL

CITY OF FORT WORTH

|--------------|--------------|------------------------|-------------------|
| APRIL FY2011 | $ 6,572,158 | DOLLAR VARIANCE | % VARIANCE |
| APRIL FY2010 | $ 7,841,444 | ($1,269,286) ↓        | -16.19% ↓         |

Note: The City's April sales tax collections were down $1,269,286 compared to last year. Just as in the prior month, this decline is due to a single audit adjustment. Last month, an entity filed a refund for taxes paid on tax exempt equipment and received a $1.1M credit. This month, the same entity was granted an additional $1.4M adjustment after a legal judgment. The refunds stemmed from an audit that occurred in prior years. Although this is an unusual event, the Comptroller has informed Staff that unfortunately additional adjustments are expected in the following months.

SUBJECT: FORT WORTH SETS THE BAR WITH NATIONAL FUEL CONTRACT TO REDUCE FUEL COSTS AND EARN ADDITIONAL REVENUES

Fort Worth continues to show the nation how partnerships mean progress as it took the lead on a national effort to leverage the bargaining power of public agencies when purchasing the needed fuel to keep our public fleets moving. The effort started small, but has blossomed into a one-of-a-kind national model.

In 2002, Tarrant County and the City of Fort Worth cooperated to purchase bulk fuels to lower fuel expenses by leveraging volume buying discounts. The City of Fort Worth became the contracting agency. That cooperative effort was so successful that over a period of six years it expanded from two partners consuming 3 million gallons of fuel to 27 partners consuming more than 14 million gallons of fuel annually. The larger group called itself the North Texas Regional Fuel Consortium and it included municipalities, counties, school districts and universities.

In July 2008, the Regional Fuel Consortium was featured as a model in Government Fleet Magazine, and agencies in Georgia and Virginia began modeling similar consortiums.

The benefits of this model were obvious and the momentum continued to grow. In September 2008, the National Intergovernmental Purchasing Alliance (National IPA) approached the City of Fort Worth about using its model to facilitate a competitive proposal process to be used by public entities nationwide. As part of this arrangement, the City would receive a portion of any administration fee received by National IPA from vendors as products were purchased by other public agencies. Recognizing the potential savings and additional revenue, the City of Fort Worth's Purchasing Division, with support from the Equipment Services Department, agreed to facilitate the project.

The final product, The National Fuel Contract, is the first and only one of its kind, and it benefits the City in two primary ways: It increases our bargaining power to leverage lower fuel prices and it generates the city additional revenue through the rebate agreement. Under the agreement, the City receives 8.333% of a one-cent administration fee the National IPA charges for each gallon of motor fuel sold under this national cooperative contract. This rebate revenue is deposited in the Equipment Services Fund to further reduce the cost of fuel and services to user departments. Realizing a transition period would occur as government agencies sought approval to move to the national contract, the City of Fort Worth negotiated a minimum first year rebate of $10,000.

Currently, there are 16 government agencies using the national fuel contract including twelve of the North Texas Regional Fuel Consortium members that transitioned to the national contract.

In the first year of the agreement, the City saved $39,787 dollars in fuel expenses and received the $10,000 minimum rebate for a total first year savings of almost $50,000. As we pass the mid way point of the second year, projections show that the city could realize almost $40,000 in annual fuel savings and a rebate of more than $16,400.

SUBJECT: FORT WORTH SETS THE BAR WITH NATIONAL FUEL CONTRACT TO REDUCE FUEL COSTS AND EARN ADDITIONAL REVENUES

Today, because of the great success of this national partnership, Government Fleet Magazine is once again interested in Fort Worth's leadership and is scheduled to publish an article in July 2011. Once this article is on the news racks, we expect more public entities to jump on board the National Contract further strengthening our momentum, saving tax pay dollars and earning additional revenue to support essential Fort Worth services.

If you have any questions regarding this information, please contact Jack Dale, Purchasing Manager, at (817) 392-8357 or Wayne Corum, Equipment Services Director, at (817) 392-5118.

SUBJECT: NEW DOMAIN NAME FOR CITY OF FORT WORTH WEBSITE

Several weeks ago, Councilmember Joel Burns asked about the possibility of changing the City's website domain name (fortworthgov.org) to something more user friendly. Many of the Council members responded positively to the suggestion and staff agreed that a new domain would better position the city as it continues to move forward with more digital and Web-based initiatives and services.

The federal government (GSA) regulates the use of .gov domain names, and there are some limitations according to federal policy. One such limitation is that in order to use the .gov domain it must include both the name of the city and the state. According to the policy, staff has received approval and is reserving the following domain names:

- fortworthtexas.gov (recommended)
- fortworthtx.gov
- ftworthtx.gov
- fortworth-tx.gov
- fortworth-texas.gov

It should be noted that other cities, (nyc.gov and seattle.gov) use the .gov without the state identified because their domain names were approved prior to GSA's current policy. City staff discussed this issue with GSA, and the city was told that Fort Worth's .gov domain must have Texas identified in some form or fashion.

Based on this policy, it is the staff recommendation the City's domain be changed to fortworthtexas.gov. Although this domain is longer than some listed above, it is easy to explain and would be less likely to be confused with the Fort Worth CVB's domain name of "fortworth.com".

Staff also recommends changing all city email addresses to match. For example: jane.doe@fortworthgov.org would become jane.doe@fortworthtexas.gov.

Associated Costs

A comprehensive review of the costs associated with a change in the city's domain name is underway, and most of those costs will likely be associated with updating the City's security certificates, licensed services and ensuring online services—such as paying water bills—continue without interruption.

Fortunately, after the domain name is changed, the City can continue to use fortworthgov.org and all fortworthgov.org emails indefinitely. This means that after the switch, if someone types in fortworthgov.org or has a website linked to fortworthgov.org, they will still pull up our Webpage. It also means that all emails will continue to work even if the old address is used. This will help avoid additional costs as it will allow printed materials such as business cards, flyers, signs, handouts, etc. to be replaced only as needed when supplies are depleted.

In the coming weeks, staff representing various departments will continue to meet about a phased-in transition to a new domain, which will include a comprehensive review of any associated costs. This information will be shared with the City Council as soon as it becomes available and before any changes are made.

Without objections from the City Council, staff will proceed with this planning effort to possibly change the city's domain name to fortworthtexas.gov. by the Fall of this year.

SUBJECT: ANNUAL PURCHASE AGREEMENTS EXPIRATIONS AND RENEWALS--- FOURTH QUARTER FY 2010-2011

This Informal Report addresses annual purchase agreements which are scheduled to expire during the fourth quarter of FY 2010-2011 with options to extend by renewal. The Purchasing Division surveys the City departments and the vendors to determine the agreements which are eligible for extension and should be extended and renewed.

If sufficient funds have been appropriated by the City Council, a renewal may be accomplished by a written notice to the vendor within 60 days of the expiration date. As provided in the M&Cs awarding the agreements valued over $50,000, "[renewal of these agreements] does not require specific City Council approval[.]"

The following internet link provides the list of agreements which have been deemed to be eligible for extension by the departments due to satisfactory performance based on the survey by the Purchasing Division. The list may be viewed at:

SUBJECT: LIBRARY SYSTEM MASTER PLAN UPDATE

The purpose of this Informal Report is to update Council on the status of the Library's System Master Plan.

On June 23, 2009, the Library distributed Informal Report 9072 outlining its intent to update the 2004 Long Range Services Plan. The goals were to re-visit recommended service improvement goals identified in the 2004 plan, evaluate facility needs, and use market segmentation data to recommend strategies to respond to 21st century service needs. Two consultants were used in this effort:

1. Buxton Company conducted the market segment analysis of the Library's current and potential customers.
2. Godfrey's Associates conducted a facilities assessment.

A Planning Advisory Committee of library stakeholders evaluated and responded to the consultants' findings and recommendations.

In addition, findings and recommendations for the Central Library were based in part on the results of a three-day charrette involving representatives from Downtown Fort Worth Inc, FWISD, the Library Advisory Board, the Friends of the Fort Worth Public Library, The Fort Worth Public Library Foundation, Tarrant County College, the city's cable studio, and Library staff. Over those three days, the group addressed a series of questions about how the Central Library is and could be used. Godfrey's responded to each charrette session with a selection of alternative floor plans that the group discussed and refined throughout the course of the three-day event.

The draft Plan was published for public review in April 2010. It called for customizing services according to market segmentation data and utilizing technologies such as smart barcodes, automated materials handling systems, and self-service kiosks to improve efficiencies. Facility recommendations included replacing several existing full-service libraries with larger facilities, remodeling several, repurposing one, adding one new facility in far north Fort Worth, and adding several alternative "express" facilities.

Three public meetings were held in April 2010. The Plan was generally praised as being forward-looking and realistic, given the City's current economic situation. However, residents expressed concerns over several specific proposals: closing Meadowbrook, relocating Riverside to a larger facility, replacing the Diamond Hill/Jarvis and Northside branches with one larger facility near NE28th and North Main, not opening a new library in far north Fort Worth until some time after 2016, and redesigning the public service areas of the Central Library. There were also concerns that insufficient time had been provided for the public to review the Plan and supporting documents. Further work on the Plan was postponed, pending the outcome of the FY2010/FY2011 budget process.

SUBJECT: LIBRARY SYSTEM MASTER PLAN UPDATE

The revised Plan responds to citizen concerns and the City's current budget outlook. Specifically, the revised Plan recommends:

- Customizing services according to market segment data
- Utilizing technology efficiencies
- Adding library service in far north Fort Worth
- Replacing Ridglea, Seminary, Summer Glen, and Wedgwood with larger spaces when funding becomes available
- Remodeling BOLD, COOL (currently in progress), Central, Diamond Hill, East Berry, East Regional, Northside, Riverside, and Southwest Regional
- Repurposing Meadowbrook (currently in progress)
- Providing three express libraries
- Utilizing facility standards
- Ensuring facility replacement plans are developed prior to closure of existing facilities.

Costs for changes to services and technologies will be absorbed as part of the Library's regular operating budget. Estimated costs to implement the facility proposals between 2011 and 2020 are approximately $53,000,000.00. Funding for these projects could be realized in several ways, including bond elections, grants, and private donations as well as through partnerships and joint use.

The revised Plan will be posted to the Library's Web site in June. A public awareness campaign will promote the Plan through the Library and City Web sites, informational fliers, e-news, and other electronic outlets as well as with the media. A series of five public meetings, listed below, will be held to obtain additional citizen feedback:

- Tuesday, July 5, 6:30pm, Northpark YMCA
- Wednesday, July 7, 6:00pm, RD Evans Community Center
- Monday, July 18, 6:00pm, Diamond Hill Community Center
- Tuesday, July 26, 12:30pm, Southwest Regional Library
- Thursday, August 18, 12:30pm, East Regional Library (Library Advisory Board)

SUBJECT: PUBLICATION OF ANNUAL DRINKING WATER QUALITY REPORT

At the June 7, 2011, pre-council meeting, the City Council inquired about why the City prints and mails the City's annual Drinking Water Quality Report.

In 1993, a cryptosporidium outbreak occurred in Milwaukee, killing 100 persons and causing 300,000 to become ill. Recognizing that safe drinking water was and is an important public health issue, Congress amended the Safe Drinking Water Act in 1996 to require water utilities to mail each of its customers a "consumer confidence report," which the City refers to as its Drinking Water Quality Report. Based on the congressional mandate, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) developed minimum requirements that utilities must meet in preparing this annual report and specified measures the utility must take to protect public health. These mandates can be found in 42 U.S.C Chapter 6A, Section 300g-3c(4). Because EPA has delegated the regulation of drinking water to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ), TCEQ promulgated more specific regulations in Title 30 of the Texas Administrative Code (TAC), Chapter 290, Subchapter H.

In accordance with federal and state regulations, the report must contain specific information such as charts listing substances detected in drinking water and include precise wording regarding public health. The Drinking Water Quality Report must also contain information on what is in the water, how these substances may get into the water, where the water comes from, and how a consumer can obtain additional information on what is being done to protect the City's water source.

The report's delivery and record keeping requirements are outlined in 30 TAC Chapter 290, Subchapter H, Section 274. Both federal and state law require the report to be mailed to every customer that gets a bill and a good faith effort to distribute the report to water consumers that do not get a bill, such as apartment dwellers or those who work in Fort Worth but live elsewhere. There is currently not an option for the City to email the report to its customers. As required, the water quality report is also posted on the Water Department's web site in both English and Spanish.

The Water Department produced its first report in 1998. The cost of the annual report preparation and distribution is approximately $85,000. The report is mailed to every customer who receives a City water bill and to those who reside in multi-family housing in Fort Worth, about 266,000 copies. The Drinking Water Quality Report has also been placed at all Fort Worth Public Libraries and parks and community services facilities. The Water Department offers neighborhood associations and community organizations the opportunity to have a representative speak about the report.

If you have any additional questions about the Drinking Water Quality Report, please contact Water Director Frank Crumb at 817-392-8207.

ESTABLISHING CRITERIA FOR USE IN REDISTRICTING OF SINGLE-MEMBER CITY COUNCIL DISTRICTS

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Fort Worth is composed of representatives elected from single-member districts; and

WHEREAS, between 2000 and 2010, the population of the City of Fort Worth increased by 202,374 residents, or thirty-eight and six-tenths percent (38.6%); and

WHEREAS, this growth was not evenly distributed across the City of Fort Worth; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to redraw boundary lines for City Council single-member districts to adjust for the growth and shifts in population among the districts; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has certain redistricting responsibilities under federal and state law, including but not limited to, the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.A. section 1973, et seq.; and

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the City Council to comply with the United States Constitution, the Voting Rights Act and all other relevant law, including Shaw v. Reno jurisprudence; and

WHEREAS, a set of established redistricting criteria will serve as a framework to guide the City in the consideration of redistricting plans; and

WHEREAS, redistricting criteria will assist the City in its efforts to comply with all applicable federal and state laws;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FORT WORTH, TEXAS THAT:

relatively equal in total population according to the 2010 census. In no event should the total maximum deviation between the largest and the smallest district exceed ten percent (10%).

2. Single-member districts should be compact and composed of contiguous territory. Compactness may contain a functional as well as a geographic dimension.
3. Where possible, easily identifiable geographic boundaries should be followed.
4. Where possible, communities of interest should be contained in a single district, and attempts should be made to avoid splitting neighborhoods, unless requested by neighborhood representatives.
5. Where possible, each single-member district should encompass areas located inside Loop 820 and outside Loop 820, as such demarcation follows a commonly-known and easily-identified geographic boundary.
6. The plan should be narrowly tailored to avoid retrogression in the position of racial and language minorities as defined by the Voting Rights Act to respect their ability to participate in the electoral process.
7. The plan should not fragment a geographically compact minority community, or pack minority voters in the presence of polarized voting so as to create liability under section 2 of the Voting Rights Act.
8. To the extent possible, single-member districts should be composed of whole voting precincts. Where this is not possible or practicable, districts should be drawn in a way that permits the creation of practical voting precincts and that ensures that adequate facilities for polling places exist in each voting precinct.
9. Where possible, single-member districts should be composed of whole census block groups or blocks. Where the allocation of whole census blocks is not possible, the population for a split block shall be estimated in proportion to the percentage of the area of the block.
10. Consideration may be given to the preservation of incumbent-constituency relations by recognition of the residence of incumbents and their history in representing certain areas.

Subject: Service Plan Public Hearing for AX-11-003, Located on the North Freeway (I-35W), South of Highway 115 and East of Championship Parkway (Council District 2)

The 2011-2015 annexation program, adopted with the 2011 Comprehensive Plan, recommends several areas be considered for full-purpose annexation in 2011 that would be additions to Council District 2. The property under consideration for annexation as AX-11-003 is 21 acres and currently is right-of-way for the North Freeway (I-35W), owned by the Texas Department of Transportation. No additional development is anticipated. For property used as rights-of-way, the zoning of the adjacent parcels will be extended upon annexation.

The purpose of tonight's public hearing is to collect public comments on the city-initiated annexation service plan for the North Freeway (AX-11-003). The services that the annexation area will receive immediately upon annexation are: police, fire, and emergency medical services; garbage pick-up; library services; building inspection and code compliance; maintenance of existing public water and sewer lines; and public roadway maintenance. The only Council action necessary is to close the public hearing after receiving public input. Final annexation action will take place at the July 12 City Council meeting, which will contain an M&C to consider and institute adoption of this enclave in the Far North sector.

If full municipal services cannot be reasonably provided within the aforementioned time period, the City will propose a schedule for providing said services within a period of four and one-half (4-½) years after the effective date of the annexation, and/or upon commencement of development of a subdivision within this property, whichever occurs later.

Provision of street lighting will be in accordance with the City's street lighting policies, and those of the providing utility.
- H. Parks, Playgrounds and Swimming Pools. Capital improvements such as parkland acquisition and development of facilities will be dictated by future land use of the area, goals established by the Park,

Recreation and Open Space Master Plan and appropriation of resources. Should additional residential development occur, parkland dedication, neighborhood park development and neighborhood park infrastructure or payment in lieu thereof will be required in accordance with the Park Dedication Policy of the Subdivision Ordinance.

Subject: Service Plan Public Hearing for AX-11-004, Located at 4561 Lakeside Hollow Street, South of Litsey Road and East of Cleveland-Gibbs Road (Council District 2)

The 2011-2015 annexation program, adopted with the 2011 Comprehensive Plan, recommends several areas be considered for full-purpose annexation in 2011 that would be additions to Council District 2. The second property under consideration for annexation this spring is 0.3 acres (AX-11-004), currently developed as one single-family residence. No additional development is anticipated. The property is proposed to be zoned "A-5" One-Family upon annexation, which matches the zoning of the surrounding subdivision.

The purpose of tonight's public hearing is to collect public comments on the city-initiated annexation service plan for 4561 Lakeside Drive (AX-11-004). The services that the annexation area will receive immediately upon annexation are: police, fire, and emergency medical services; garbage pick-up; library services; building inspection and code compliance; maintenance of existing public water and sewer lines; and public roadway maintenance. The only Council action necessary is to close the public hearing after receiving public input. Final annexation action will take place at the July 12 City Council meeting, which will contain an M&C to consider and institute adoption of this enclave in the Far North sector.

MEMORANDUM

DATE: June 14, 2011

TO: Honorable Mayor Moncrief and City Council Members

FROM: Jeffrey W. Halstead, Chief of Police

SUBJECT: Staff Action – Response to Question Regarding Disproportionate Number of African American Traffic-Related Arrests

---

On Tuesday, May 24, 2011, Chief Jeffrey W. Halstead provided an overview of the 2010 Racial Profiling report to Mayor Moncrief and the members of the Fort Worth City Council. During the presentation, Councilmember Frank Moss requested information regarding the disproportionate amount of arrests of Black/African Americans, which created the perception that the Fort Worth Police Department was engaged in racial profiling. This response is an effort to provide information and analysis on arrest data, as well as other pertinent data relevant to this important topic.

Background

According to, “Racial Profiling: A Police Manager’s Perspective,” by Russ Leach,

“Racial profiling is one of the most complex and controversial issues facing law enforcement professionals today. It is an issue that provokes debate and extensive division within all segments of the community. Whether racial profiling by police officers is a matter of perception or reality loses significance when considering the widespread public belief in its existence and the subsequent liability for law enforcement agencies that encounter allegations of racial profiling.”

The Fort Worth Police Department agrees with Russ Leach’s perspective, on this issue in that the practice of racial profiling has no place in law enforcement, and that it is an activity that undermines the public trust vital for an effective community policing organization.

“It is important for Police to be perceived as both providers of public safety and deferential to the civil liberties of those they have sworn to protect and serve. While the majority of police officers serve their communities in a professional and ethical manner, the debate over the reality of racial profiling as a practice in law enforcement is loudest on the side of its existence on a national level. A 1999

POLICE DEPARTMENT

Gallup Poll revealed that 60% of Americans polled believed that racial profiling exists. To restore public trust and improve community /police relationships, law enforcement agencies must address these concerns of the community at large that are relevant to discriminatory policing, and allegations of racial profiling made by citizens.”

State Legislation & Police Policies Related to Racial Profiling

In response to this national issue, several states throughout the United States passed legislation to prohibit racial profiling. Effective September 1, 2001, Texas Senate Bill 1074 of the 77th Legislature established requirements in the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure (TCCP) for law enforcement agencies establishing the prohibition of racial profiling in Texas. The law further required law enforcement agencies to collect data pertaining to certain contacts made with the public, specifically data regarding the race and ethnicity of individuals the police came into contact with. Section 7 states, “Not later than January 1, 2002, a law enforcement agency shall adopt and implement a policy and begin collecting information under the policy as required by Article 2.132, Code of Criminal Procedure, as added by this Act.” In 2001, the Fort Worth Police Department complied with this law and adopted policies prohibiting racial profiling based on Senate Bill 1074. The Fort Worth Police Department’s Racial Profiling Policy, General Order Section 321.06,

“...is intended to reaffirm the department’s commitment to unbiased policing, to clarify the circumstances in which an officer can consider race, ethnicity, or national origin, and to assure the department is providing the public with a process by which an individual may file a complaint of racial profiling with the department if the individual believes that an officer has engaged in racial profiling with respect to the individual.”

In compliance with Senate Bill 1074, the Fort Worth Police Department also began collecting data January 1, 2002 to be included in a report that is required to be submitted to the governing body each year in March. Since 2002, the Fort Worth Police Department has been collecting and reporting information regarding racial profiling to the public. These reports can be located at www.fortworthpd.com under the “About FWPD” tab.

On February 4, 2011, the Fort Worth Police Department, took this one step further to enhance its departmental policies through the Bias-Based Policing policy, to ensure that police services are provided to the community in a nonpartisan, fair, equitable, and objective manner without consideration of race, color, gender, age, national origin, religion, disability, economic status, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, transgender status, membership in a cultural group, or other individual characteristics or distinctions. It ensures that institutional racism, individual racism, and/or discrimination in the workplace is strictly prohibited and all violations will be met with severe consequences. The Fort Worth Police Department is leading the effort in the State of Texas to adopt policies specifically prohibiting bias-based policing.

Education and Training

Since 2002, all Fort Worth Police Officers have been instructed, as specified in the Texas Racial Profiling Law, to adhere to all Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLEOSE) training and the Law Enforcement Management Institute of Texas requirements. To date, all sworn officers of the Fort Worth Police Department have completed TCLEOSE training on the prohibition of racial profiling.

Process of Filing a Racial Profiling Complaint

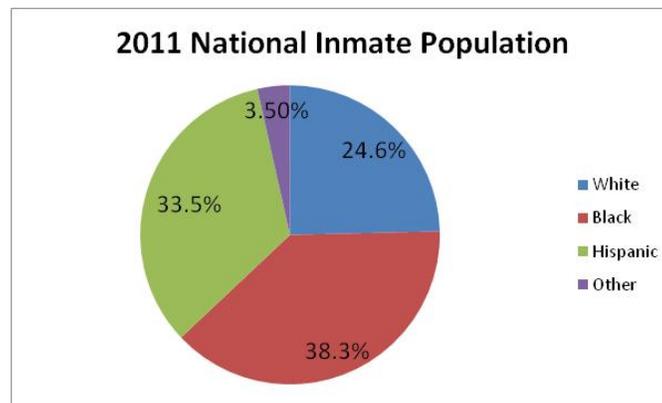

Complaints of racial profiling, as with other complaints against departmental personnel, may be initiated with the Internal Affairs Division or with any supervisor in the police department. The Internal Affairs Division is staffed from 8am to 5pm, Monday through Friday. Complaints may also be made by phone or in person at any of the patrol division facilities. Additional information is available on the Fort Worth Police Department website at www.fortworthpd.com under the “About FWPD” section.

National vs. Citywide Trends

As mentioned previously, whether racial profiling is a perception or reality, the Fort Worth Police Department affirms that the practice of racial profiling has no place in law enforcement, and that it can undermine the public trust vital for an effective community policing organization. Data collection and analysis is an important step in the process of determining whether racial profiling exists in law enforcement agencies. In response to the question raised regarding the disproportionate amount of Black/African American traffic-related arrests in Fort Worth, it may be important to compare all arrests (traffic and other arrest) citywide with national trends.

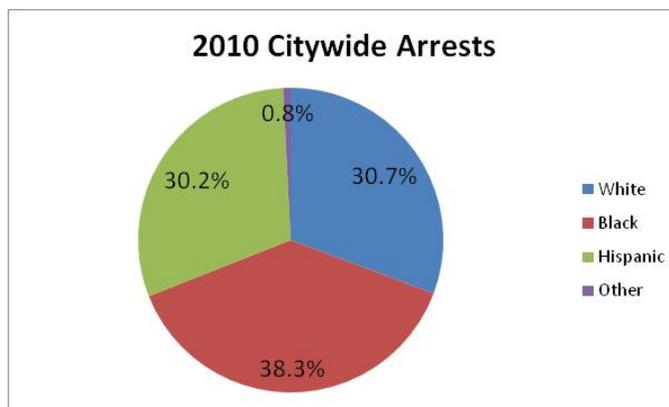

According to the Federal Bureau of Prisons, the national inmate population in 2011 currently reached 213,608. Of the 213,608, 25% (52,621) are white inmates, with 34% (71,651) Hispanic/Latino inmates and 38% (81,829) Black/African American inmates.

Figure 1

In 2010, there were a total of 25,644 arrests overall (traffic-related and other) in the City of Fort Worth. Of the 25,644 arrests, 30.7% (7,938) of the individuals were White, 38.3% (9,910) of the individuals were Black/African American, and 30.2% (7,796) of the individuals were Hispanic/Latino. Statistically, Fort Worth is consistent with national trends with regard to the percentages of all arrests compared with the current national inmate population.

All Arrests by Patrol Division

A further breakdown of all arrests into five geographical areas of the city revealed:

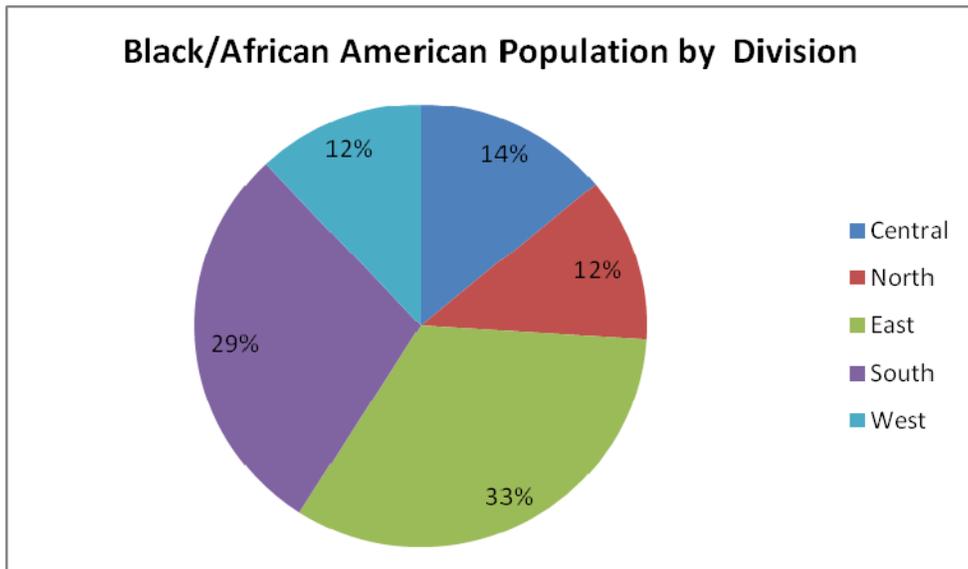

- Central Division accounted for 24.7% (6,344) of the total arrests. 44.3% (2,811) arrests in Central Division were Black/African American. 28.2% (1,790) were White/Caucasian. 27.5% (1,743) were Hispanic/Latino.
- East Division accounted for 19.33% (4,957) of the total arrests. 69.31% (3,436) arrests in East Division were Black/African American. 18.7% (896) were White/Caucasian. 12.6% (625) were Hispanic/Latino.
- North Division accounted for 18.6% of the total arrests. 11.8% (564) were Black/African American. 36.7% (1,751) were White/Caucasian. 51.5% (2,458) were Hispanic/Latino.
- South Division accounted for 18.1% of the total arrests. 36.6% were Black/African American. 22.5% were White/Caucasian. 40.8% were Hispanic/Latino.
- West Division accounted for 19.2% of the total arrests. 28.4% (1,399) were Black/African American. 49.8% (2,455) were White/Caucasian. 21.8% (1,074) were Hispanic/Latino.

Based on the statistical analysis for all arrest in 2010, which includes traffic-related arrest data, East Division appears to have a significant percentage (69.31%) of arrests for Black/African American individuals. According to 2010 census tract data, East Division accounts for 33% of Black/African American residents. (See Figure 4)

Figure 4

In comparing total arrest data, it appears the arrest rate for Black/African Americans by division may be related to the population of Black/African Americans within each geographical area. Below is a graphic to illustrate the population of Black/African American residents by council district (see Figure 5) for comparison with the percentages of arrest for each council district (see Figure 6).

2010 Victim Demographics: From Cases That Led to the Arrests of Black/African American Individuals

Of the 8,639 arrests of Black/African American individuals, 17.9% (1,968) of the victims (from the cases that led to these arrests) were also Black/African American compared to 7.8% (858) White and 4.6% (505) Hispanic/Latino. The majority (68.2%) of victims are considered in the category of Business or Crimes Against Society.

All Arrests vs. Traffic-Related Arrests Only

As reflected in the 2010 Racial Profiling Report, more Black/African American individuals were arrested based on Traffic-Related Arrests compared to the White and Hispanic individuals. Black/African American individuals also had more arrests overall (traffic-related arrests and all other arrests) than White and Hispanic individuals.

2010 Traffic-Related Arrests Trends

Outstanding Warrants vs. On-View Violations

The racial profiling statute does not require law enforcement agencies to collect data on the circumstances leading to an arrest; therefore, this data was not reported. However, police department staff was able to analyze data from the 2010 racial profiling report regarding traffic-related arrests to determine if the arrest was due to an outstanding warrant or from an on-view violation as follows:

- Traffic related arrests for Black/African American individuals totaled 1,357 (946 men and 411 women). Of the 1,357 arrests, 70.7% (960) were the result of outstanding arrest warrants with 29.3% (397) being the result of on-view violations of the transportation code and/or penal code offenses.
- Traffic related arrests for White individuals totaled 761 (541 men and 220 women). Of the 761 arrests, 54.9% (418) were the result of outstanding arrest warrants with 45.1% (343) being the result of on view violations of the transportation code and/or penal code offenses.
- Traffic related arrests for Hispanic/Latino individuals totaled 778 (629 men and 149 women). Of the 778 arrests, 62.5% (487) were the result of outstanding arrest warrants with 37.5% (291) being the result of on view violations of the transportation code and/or penal code offenses.

The amount of arrests that stemmed from traffic stops in 2010 overall totaled 2,931. Of the 2,931 arrests, 64% (1,877) were the result of outstanding arrest warrants with 36% (1,054) being the result of on view violations of the transportation code and/or penal code offenses. The statistical information can be interpreted to indicate that the majority of arrests that occurred from a traffic stop are the result of outstanding arrest warrants. On-view arrest statistics from 2010 indicate that Black/African Americans were less likely to be arrested for an on-view offense than White or Hispanic/Latino.

Traffic Related Arrest Trends 2002 - 2010

Below is a summary analysis of traffic-related arrests for each report beginning in 2002 and ending in 2010:

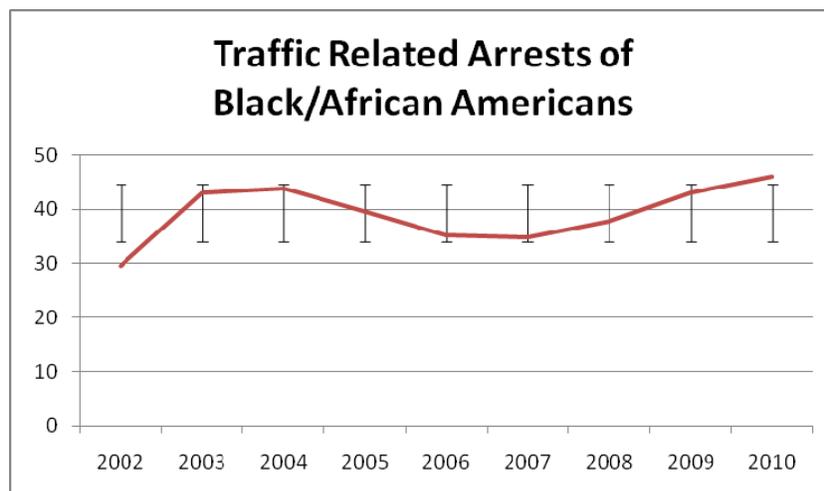

- In 2002, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 37.3%, Hispanic 31.5%, African American 29.5%, Asian 5.0%, and other 1.2%.
- In 2003, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 29.4%, Hispanic 26.0%, African American 43.1%, Asian .4%, and other 1.1%.
- In 2004, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 29.9%, Hispanic 43.8%, African American 43.8%, Asian .5%, American Indian .1%, and other .6%. In 2004 American Indian/Alaskan Native was added to the demographic categories.
- In 2005, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 31.4%, Black (African American) 39.7%, Hispanic (Latino) 27.6%, Asian .4%, American Indian .0%, other .1%, unknown .6%.
- In 2006, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 30.4%, Black or African American 35.3%, Hispanic or Latino 32.6%, Asian .6%, American Indian .1%, other .1%, unknown .9%.
- In 2007, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 31.6%, Black/African American 34.9%, Hispanic/Latino 32.1%, Asian .5%, American Indian .02%, other .9%.
- In 2008, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 27.3%, Black/African American 37.9%, Hispanic/Latino 33.6%, Asian .5%, American Indian .0%, other .6%.

- In 2009, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 26%, Black/African American 43%, Hispanic/Latino 30%, Asian .5%, American Indian .8%, other .4%.
- In 2010, the percentage of traffic related arrests by race/ethnicity revealed the following: White 26%, Black/African American 46%, Hispanic/Latino 27%, Asian .6%, American Indian 0%, Middle Eastern .03%, other .4%.

Black/African American Traffic-Related Arrests Patterns from 2002-2010

Based on the percentage of traffic-related arrests of Black/African American individuals each year from 2002 to 2010, the standard deviation is 5.32%, which assists the department in determining a threshold that would indicate the need to further investigate traffic related enforcement activity for potential racial profiling.

The above graphic illustrates traffic-related arrests of Black/African American individuals, which experienced a slight increase in the percentage of arrests from 2007 to 2010. However, when compared overall, the increase is just above the standard deviation by 1%.

Potential Attributing Factors

The increase in arrests is potentially attributed to recent Crime Suppression and Intelligence-Led Policing efforts that focus on prolific, repeat offenders and those who have outstanding arrest warrants. This would further explain the significant increase in the percentage of traffic-related arrests (64%) in 2010 resulting from outstanding warrants. In 2010, the police department focused its resources and intelligence gathering in three geographical areas of the city (North, East, and South). Emphasis was placed on arresting prolific offenders and individuals with outstanding arrest warrants in an attempt to reduce significant historical spikes in crime before they occurred. The results of this evidence-based strategy was a 11% reduction in Part 1 offenses in the north geographical target area, 21% reduction in Part 1 offenses in the east geographical target area, and a 7% reduction in violent crime in the south geographical target area.

Using evidence-based strategies that target prolific offenders in geographical areas historically known for higher crime incidents has a positive impact on the reduction of crime and the sustainability of a lower crime rate. Additionally it reduces the fear of crime victimization in neighborhoods and has a proactive benefit through tertiary intervention in the criminal environment resulting from arrest and prosecution of high-risk, prolific and persistent offenders.

It should be noted that determining whether racial profiling is occurring is a very difficult undertaking. Experts agree that collecting and analyzing data alone regarding traffic stops will never provide conclusive evidence of racial profiling. The difficulty is due to the myriad of factors involved that are not measured and/or collected and is not required to be collected under the current racial profiling statute. The best available method used as an indicator of racial profiling is the collection and analysis of traffic-related arrest data, search data, and racial profiling complaint data. In 2010, the Fort Worth Police Department received zero complaints of racial profiling. In 2009, the Fort Worth Police Department received two (2) complaints of racial profiling, which were both investigated by Internal Affairs with the determination that the traffic stops were based on transportation code violations and therefore unfounded. Racial profiling complaints are required to be reported in each departmental Racial Profiling Report, which can be viewed on-line at www.fortworthpd.com.

The less effective method would be to include the number of searches conducted and whether the searches were productive. This methodology is problematic due to multiple variables involved in conducting searches themselves. For instance, a search based on incident to an arrest is a mandatory search in order to take inventory of items before an individual is booked into a jail or before a vehicle is towed to the auto pound. A search based on consent where a police officer requests an individual to allow a search to be conducted of either their person or their vehicle would present a more compelling measurement to gauge the potential for racial profiling. This method also presents challenges due to not knowing specific circumstances surrounding why an officer would request an individual to consent to a search (i.e. driver's nervousness, items in plain view that are not illegal but are known to be used in the trafficking and sell of narcotics, property inside a vehicle of a nature that could indicate a theft or burglary, etc...) Collecting and reporting this data is not required by the current statute.

Traffic-Related Search Data

Police department staff was able to analyze searches based on consent for 2010:

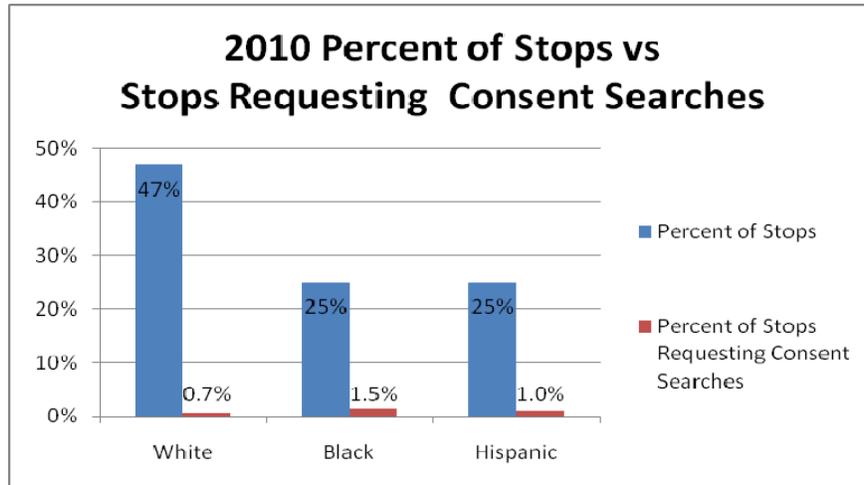

- In 2010 there were a total of 145,290 traffic stops conducted in the city of Fort Worth. Of the 145,290 stops, less than 1% (1,388) resulted in a police officer requesting an individual to consent to a search. Of the 1,388 searches conducted, 14.9% (207) resulted in contraband being discovered.

- Of the 145,290 stops, 25% (36,806) involved Black/African American motorists. 1.5% (557) of Black/African American motorists was asked by a police officer for consent to search either their person or their vehicle. Of the 557 searches conducted, 14.1% (79) resulted in contraband being discovered. (See figure 5.0)
- Of the 145,290 stops, 25% (35,733) involved Hispanic/Latino motorists. 1% (338) of Hispanic/Latino motorists was asked by a police officer for consent to search either their person or their vehicle. Of the 338 searches conducted, 17.8% (60) resulted in contraband being discovered. (See figure 5.0)
- Of the 145,290 stops, 47% (68,329) involved White/Caucasian motorists. .7% (481) of White/Caucasian motorists was asked by a police officer for consent to search either their person or their vehicle. Of the 481 searches conducted, 12.7% (61) resulted in contraband being discovered.

Conclusion

The information and analysis presented in this report has attempted to provide an explanation into the question regarding the disproportionate amount of Black/African American traffic-related arrests. While it would be naïve to deny that prejudice exists in law enforcement or within any police department or major organization, the analysis contained in this report indicates that the data used most effectively to measure and monitor the presence of racial profiling (arrest, search, and complaint information) provides an objective determination that statistically as an institution, the Fort Worth Police Department is not engaged in the detention, arrest, or search of individuals based on race, ethnicity, gender, nationality, sexual preference, age, or other primary dimensions and/or non-behavioral characteristics alone. The Fort Worth Police Department has implemented policies and procedures that prohibit racial profiling and bias-based policing and since 2002, all Fort Worth Police Officers have been instructed, as specified in the Texas Racial Profiling Law, to adhere to all Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLEOSE) training and the Law Enforcement Management Institute of Texas requirements. To date, all sworn officers of the Fort Worth Police Department have completed TCLEOSE training on the prohibition of racial profiling.

Additionally, the Fort Worth Police Department is the first law enforcement agency in the nation to develop and utilize a computerized dashboard management system (Executive DashPRO Management System) with capabilities to track and monitor traffic stop contacts and the ability to conduct analysis at the micro-level regarding race and ethnicity and whether contacts resulted in arrest, citation, or verbal warning. Soon this system will also be able to monitor if contacts resulted in a search and whether the search was based on consent, probable cause, inventory, or incident to arrest. This ability will assist in monitoring departmental operations on a daily basis, which will greatly enhance the Department's ability to detect and address potential racial profiling and/or bias-based policing. The Fort Worth Police Department will take decisive action if any employee violates these or other provisions that strictly prohibit discrimination in the workplace or during the performance of the duties of a peace officer for this city and state.

As a final note, it is the responsibility of police managers to hire, train, supervise, and direct resources in an impartial and ethical manner. Additionally, it is the responsibility of the police in partnership with the community to provide education and communicate each other's perspectives on a myriad of challenges beyond racial profiling and beyond mere cultural awareness. The Fort Worth Police Department is committed to serving a diverse, multicultural community through mutual respect. The police department's motto "Service with Respect, Dedicated to Protect" provides the vehicle for transition from cultural awareness to multicultural competency through transcultural leadership. One of the greatest challenges ahead for law enforcement in the arena of multicultural community relations will be the ability to successfully measure performance and professionalism based on cross cultural skills and sensitivity among peace officers. The image of law enforcement, in the eyes of multicultural communities, rests upon the shoulders of professionalism and the ability of a police department to engage its officers in cultural competence, technical knowledge, and communication skills.

SUBJECT: Mid-Year Open Records/Public Information Response Update

The Records and Information Management (RIM) Office performs the receipt, distribution, and tracking of public information requests received by the City, with systematic review for release performed by the City's Law Department. The mission of the City's open records/public information program is to ensure the security and integrity of information being released from the City and to make the City more responsive to the public.

The volume of requests for public information received by the City has grown nearly 1,300 percent since the program was streamlined and centralized in the year 2000. As usual, the first half of this fiscal year has featured monthly records for request totals, with March 2011 bringing 733 requests, an all-time record for a single month.

April 2011 marks the one-year anniversary of the launch of the new web portal that was designed in coordination with FOIA Software Systems. This system automates the request process and has enhanced communication and information sharing among requestors and City staff.

The RIM Office strives to ensure not only basic statutory compliance, but also measurable efficiency, in responding to public information requests. Public information requests vary in volume, scope, and complexity, and the maximum initial response time allowed by law is ten business days. Especially through the use of the new FOIA Systems automation, same-day distribution of all requests and multiple follow-ups with departments to monitor status will ensure maximum compliance and responsiveness.

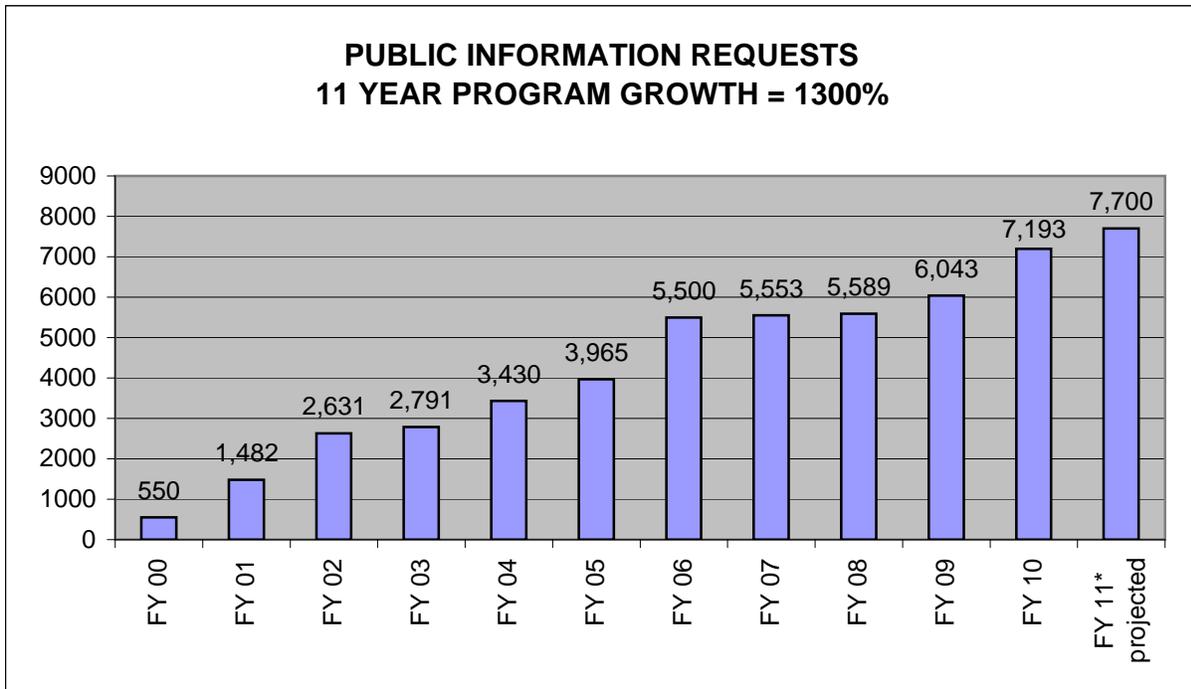

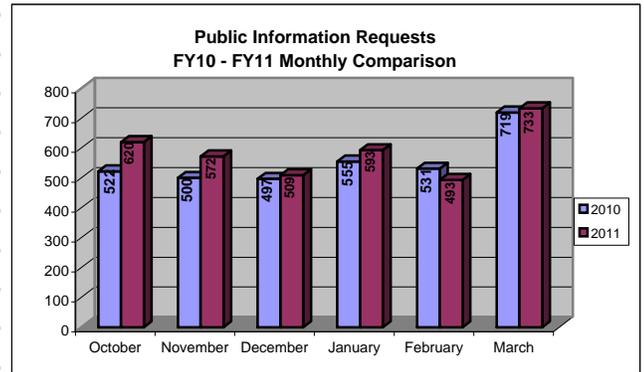

Attached is a breakdown of departmental public information requests received by the City in the first half of fiscal year 2010-2011, with rounded percentages. Also included are monthly, average, and comparative totals. This report is submitted for informational purposes. Should you have any questions, please contact Doug Jones, Records Manager, at (817) 392-2437.

MEMORANDUM

To: Mayor and Council
From: Brandon Scott Bennett, Code Compliance Director
Date: May 26, 2011
Subject: Cowtown Great American Cleanup

In April, Code Compliance along with Keep Fort Worth Beautiful hosted the 26th annual Cowtown Great American Cleanup. This annual event coincides with the Texas Department of Transportation's annual "Trash-Off" event. The goal of the Cowtown Cleanup is to work with Fort Worth businesses, schools, churches and neighborhoods to encourage cleaning up litter and debris from our streets, green spaces, parks and neighborhoods.

Volunteers cleaned areas of their choosing or joined one of three pre-established cleanups at 1) Marine Creek Ranch, 2) Hazel Harvey Peace Center, or 3) Lake Arlington Eugene McCray Park. The Lake Arlington cleanup was collaboration between the City of Fort Worth, City of Arlington and Exelon Power and involved cleaning both sides of the Lake.

Cleanup results for the last two years:

After the cleanup volunteers were invited to Trinity Park to enjoy a volunteer celebration and Earth Day Fair. A “zero-waste” lunch was provided with all of the food being served in containers that were either recyclable or compostable. In addition, eighteen vendors were present to educate attendees about water conservation, planting trees, recycling, eating organic etc. Vocal Trash, a local band that performs nationally, entertained celebration attendees by playing on recycled instruments, break dancing and promoting the cleanup theme to volunteers.

The Code Compliance Department recognizes the importance of such cleanups and is transitioning from an annual event to an ongoing anti-litter campaign with this event being the annual centerpiece. The department will continue to provide trash bags, gloves and waste removal to support neighborhood and civic group cleanups throughout the year. In addition, a major new fall cleanup will take place in conjunction with the Trinity River Trash Bash on September 17th.

Event sponsors for the April cleanup were Waste Management, TCU Andrew's Institute, Bridgestone-Firestone, Frito Lay, Wal-Mart, Central Market, AT&T Telecom Pioneers, Nestle Water, Glad, Solo and Keep America Beautiful.

Subject: Movies That Matter

On December 9, 2010, The Fort Worth Human Relations Commission (FWHRC) held an event, Movies That Matter: A Night of Human Rights Films, to recognize Human Rights Day. Human Rights Day, officially celebrated on December 10th annually, was established by the United Nations General Assembly to commemorate the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, promote the importance of human rights and inspire a new generation of defenders to speak up and take action to end discrimination in all its forms.

The inaugural screening of human rights films by the FWHRC proved to be very popular. Inspired by the feedback and response to the film screenings, the FWHRC moved to expand Movies That Matter into a quarterly series offered in March, June, September and December. The FWHRC also wanted to engage other Fort Worth organizations and has formed community partnerships with the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth, which will host the 2011 screenings; the Fort Worth Library; the Fort Worth Independent School District; and the Multicultural Alliance. A new feature added to the screenings, is a facilitated discussion that follows each presentation. The facilitated discussion, led by a panel of subject matter experts, will allow audience members the opportunity to discuss the human rights issue presented in the film and explore ideas and opportunities to increase awareness.

On June 16, 2011 the Fort Worth Human Relations Commission will host the first film in the quarterly screening: For Once in My Life (2010, 90 minutes). For Once in My Life is a documentary about The Spirit of Goodwill Band and their journey to show the world the greatness within each of them. The 28 band members have a wide range of mental and physical disabilities, as well as musical abilities that extend into ranges of pure genius. In a cinema vérité style, the film explores the band's struggles and triumphs, shatters preconceived notions and reminds us of the healing power of music.

Due to overwhelming response, the June 16th screening has been filled to capacity. At the request of Goodwill Industries of Fort Worth, our presenting partner for the June event, we have added a second screening on Friday, June 17, 2011. The Fort Worth Central Library has graciously agreed to be the host for the second screening.

Future movie offerings will be advertised via a variety of avenues, including the Fort Worth Human Relations Commission's E-news subscription list, the City of Fort Worth's web site and the Movies That Matter Facebook account - www.facebook.com/FortWorthMoviesThatMatter.

For additional information about the Movies That Matter quarterly film series, please contact Angela Rush, Human Relations Administrator, at 817-392-6155.

DISCLAIMER:

This report provides a snapshot of the Fort Worth Police Department's National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) data that was queried from the Records Management System (RMS) on April 18, 2011. The Department's RMS is updated regularly based on ongoing investigations, but a snapshot of this data is taken at the point that the Texas Department of Public Safety has reviewed and certified the data so that the Fort Worth Police Department has the ability to provide more detailed data, including information at the Council District level. It should be noted that since this is a snapshot, data queried before or after this date is apt to change and may vary from other reports.

Understanding Crime Reporting

1.1 National Perspective on Reporting Crime: Transitioning from Uniform Crime Reporting to National Incident-Based Reporting System

According to the National Incident-Based Reporting System, Volume 1: Data Collection Guidelines, by the U.S. Department of Justice,

“Since the establishment of the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program in 1930, the volume, diversity, and complexity of crime steadily increased while the UCR Program remained virtually unchanged. Recognizing the need to address crime’s growing challenge, the law enforcement community in the late 1970s called for a thorough study of the UCR Program with the objective of revising the Program to meet law enforcement’s needs into the twenty-first century. The National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) is the result of that study.”

The FBI began accepting NIBRS data from a handful of agencies in January 1989. As more contributing law enforcement agencies become more knowledgeable about the rich data available through incident-based reporting and as resources permit, more agencies are implementing the NIBRS. Although participation in NIBRS is purely voluntary, based on 2009 data submissions, approximately 44 percent of reporting agencies throughout the nation are NIBRS certified. Until an agency is ready to participate and subsequently becomes certified, it will continue to submit data in accordance with the requirements of the traditional UCR Program. As it is recognized that the transition from the old to the new system will take considerable time, the national UCR Program will continue to collect, process, and publish traditional UCR data. This will be accomplished by collecting data in the old format from agencies not participating in NIBRS and by extracting the traditional summary data from the more comprehensive submissions of agencies participating in NIBRS.

The result will be a continuation of the traditional statistical time series and a gradual phase-in of the newer forms of statistics made possible by NIBRS. This parallel operation of the old and new systems will continue until such time as it is determined that the old system can be discontinued.

1.2 Fort Worth’s Crime Report

Fort Worth understands the importance of collecting and reporting more detailed, accurate, and meaningful incident-based data, and so in January 2006, Fort Worth became certified to participate in the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) and began reporting NIBRS data to the Texas Department of Public Safety. With the use of the NIBRS, the Fort Worth Police Department now has the capability to generate reports reflecting a multitude of interrelationships among the collected data—enhancing its ability to analyze crime trends and to implement tactical strategies accordingly. NIBRS data is of great value to the City of Fort Worth!

As stated above, in 2009, approximately 44 percent of the reporting agencies throughout the nation were NIBRS certified, and more and more agencies are transitioning to NIBRS. In the meantime, the FBI will continue to report UCR data (by extracting UCR data from NIBRS data) until such time the Uniform Crime Reporting can be discontinued. FBI data is used to identify national and regional crime trends. And although the FBI does not recommend using its data for ranking purposes, it is often used for rankings and at this time is often considered the best available information to compare crime from one jurisdiction to another. Since UCR data is available for all reporting agencies nationwide, it also has value for comparison purposes.

Since one of Fort Worth’s Strategic Goals is to become one of the nation’s safest major cities, the FBI data, along with other third party rankings, are used to determine if we are making progress towards this goal/vision. Therefore, the Fort Worth Police Department sees value in reporting both NIBRS data and UCR data so that elected officials, city leaders and the public can review the detailed crime data, and yet still be able to put it in perspective (in a very general sense) with how Fort Worth compares to other peer cities.

1.3 Understanding NIBRS Figures

NIBRS compiles detailed reports on two types of offenses: Group "A" offenses and Group "B" offenses. The two groupings are based on the amount of reporting required for each. Both incidents and arrests are reported for Group "A" offenses, and only arrests are reported for Group "B" offenses.

The following criteria was used to determine if a crime should be designated as a Group "A" offense:

1. The seriousness or significance of the offense.
2. The frequency or volume of its occurrence.
3. The prevalence of the offense nationwide.
4. The probability of the offense being brought to law enforcement's attention.
5. The likelihood that law enforcement is the best channel for collecting data regarding the offense.
6. The burden placed on law enforcement in collecting data on the offense.
7. The national statistical validity and usefulness of the collected data.
8. The national UCR Program's responsibility to make crime data available not only to law enforcement but to others having a legitimate interest in it.

Group "A" offenses are categorized into one of the three following categories: 1) Crimes Against Person; 2) Crimes Against Property; 3) Crimes Against Society.

- 1) Crimes Against Person = Scores one offense for each victim
- 2) Crimes Against Property = Scores one offense for each distinct operation
(except Motor Vehicle Theft / one offense is counted per stolen vehicle)
- 3) Crime Against Society = Scores one offense for each violation

NIBRS Group A includes the following 22 Offenses:

- Homicide Offenses
- Sex Offenses, Forcible
- Sex Offenses, Non-forcible
- Robbery
- Assault Offenses
- Burglary / Breaking and Entering
- Larceny / Theft Offenses
- Motor Vehicle Theft
- Arson
- Bribery
- Counterfeiting / Forgery
- Destruction / Damage / Vandalism of Property
- Drug / Narcotic Offenses
- Embezzlement
- Extortion / Blackmail
- Fraud Offenses
- Gambling Offenses
- Kidnapping / Abduction
- Pornography / Obscene Material
- Prostitution Offenses
- Stolen Property Offenses
- Weapon Law Violations

UCR Part I includes the following eight offenses: Criminal Homicide, Forcible Rape, Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Burglary, Larceny-Theft, Motor Vehicle Theft, and Arson.

1.4 Significant Methodology and Definition Differences

A significant difference between NIBRS and UCR Traditional Summary Reporting is that for Crimes Against Persons, NIBRS counts the number of victims, while UCR counts the number of incidents, which can result in NIBRS figures being higher than UCR figures depending on the number of victims involved in the incidents. The definitions for Part 1 offenses used in Summary Reporting are different than the offense definitions used by the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS). Visit <http://www.fortworthpd.com/crime-information/> for more details about the differences between NIBRS and UCR Traditional Summary Reporting.

1st Quarter 2011 Citywide NIBRS Crime Report

2.1 Overall citywide crime has decreased 3.3%, with notable decreases in robbery (-23.8%), counterfeiting/forgery (-17.6%) and burglary (-4.1%) attributing to an overall 4.9% decrease in Crimes Against Property compared to 1st Quarter last year. Crimes Against Persons increased 7.4% citywide with aggravated assaults, kidnapping, and forcible sex offenses attributing to this increase. The following table provides a comprehensive list of Fort Worth's citywide NIBRS Group A offenses by Crimes Against Persons, Crimes Against Property, and Crimes Against Society. These trends and enforcement efforts will also be explained in more detail throughout this report.

* The crime categories are listed in alphabetical order for ease of reference rather than in order of their importance.
 ** Violent crime (including murder, aggravated assault, and forcible rape) increased 7% when comparing 1st Quarter 2011 (657 offenses) to 1st Quarter 2010 (614 offenses).

For NIBRS offense definitions, go to www.fortworthpd.com/crime-information/

Most Crimes Against Person victims are victims of simple assaults, which is defined as an unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury. Approximately 56% were domestic-related. These are followed by aggravated assaults. Aggravated assaults increased 7.1%. Approximately 40% of the aggravated assaults were domestic-related. Approximately 51% occurred within a residence, 27% near a roadway, 9% in a parking lot or parking garage, and 5% in a bar or night club. A total of 165 aggravated assault arrests were made during the 1st Quarter.

Intimidation is also an assault offense, which is defined as to unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack. Intimidation offenses decreased slightly 0.8%.

Forcible rape offenses increased 14.3% with 10 more offenses in 1st Quarter 2011 compared to 1st Quarter 2010. Of the 80 forcible rape offenses, the majority were known-offender related. There is no indication of any serial offenders.

One particular enforcement effort should be highlighted this quarter, which occurred on March 18th. Officers in North Division were able to interrupt a sexual assault in progress in an alleyway, which assisted in reducing further injury to the victim, and the violent assailant was arrested. The suspect did not have a prior history of sex offenses. The case has been filed and accepted by the District Attorney's Office.

The "Other" forcible sex offenses as listed below includes forcible sodomy, sexual assault with an object, and forcible fondling, which has increased 42.6% this quarter compared to 1st Quarter 2010. 36% of these reported offenses are incidents that occurred in prior reporting periods, but were not reported until now. Approximately 94% involve victims 17 years of age or under. Eight arrests were made specifically related to the offenses reported during the 1st Quarter with ongoing investigations, and 23 arrests have been made related to forcible sex offenses overall.

2.3 Crimes Against Person (NIBRS - Group A) Continued...

Kidnapping/Abduction increased 31.8% with 7 more offenses in 1st Quarter 2011 compared 1st Quarter 2010. It is important to understand what is included in this count.

Kidnapping/Abduction is defined by the National Incident Based Reporting System as the unlawful seizure, transportation, and/or detention of a person against his/her will or of a minor without the consent of his/her custodial parent or legal guardian.

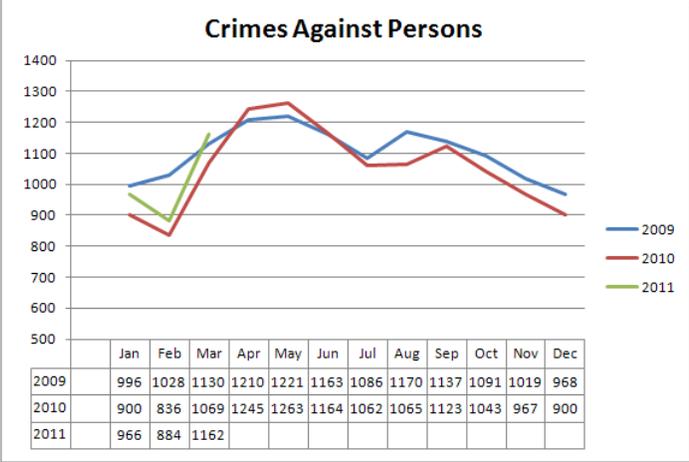

The Texas Penal Code breaks this definition out further by unlawful restraint, kidnapping, aggravated kidnapping, and unlawful transport. Please refer to Texas Penal Code Title 5, Chapter 20 for full definitions, but below are abbreviated definitions of each:

- Unlawful restraint - Intentionally or knowingly restrains another person....
Restrain—Restrict a person’s movements without consent, so as to interfere substantially with the person’s liberty, by moving the person from one place to another or by confining the person. Restraint without consent is accomplished if by force, intimidation, or deception or any means...
- Kidnapping—Intentionally or knowingly abducts another person...not coupled with intent to use or to threaten to use deadly force...the actor was a relative of the person abducted...
- Aggravated Kidnapping—Intentionally or knowingly abducts another person with the intent to hold him for ransom or reward...use him as a shield or hostage...inflict bodily injury...uses or exhibits a deadly weapon....
- Unlawful Transport—For pecuniary benefit transports an individual in a manner that is designed to conceal the individual from...law enforcement authorities...and creates a substantial likelihood that the individual will suffer serious bodily injury or death.

Of the 29 kidnapping offenses this quarter, 11 were unlawful restraints, 8 were kidnappings, 10 were aggravated kidnappings. 59% were either domestic or known suspect-related. The majority of domestic offenses are related to dating or child custody issues. All victims were recovered. No deaths resulted from any of the kidnappings.

Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter decreased by five offenses this quarter, which is a 41.7% decrease citywide compared to 1st Quarter 2010. Five of the seven cases have had dispositions filed. One additional disposition was filed on a case from 2010 as well. The motives of these murders range from being domestic-related, to robbery/narcotic, to arguments, to being reckless. One case in particular that was covered in the media, involved an officer calling in a vehicle engulfed in flames by Lake Arlington, of which the Fort Worth Fire Department extinguished the fire and located a victim in the trunk of the vehicle. An autopsy revealed that the victim had been shot. The investigation identified a suspect that had an arrest warrant issued for Sexual Assault of a Child and had previously attempted to fake his death in a prior year. Investigators located the suspect, and the suspect barricaded himself in an apartment. SWAT took the suspect into custody for Capital Murder.

2.4 Crimes Against Property (NIBRS - Group A)

Crimes Against Property decreased 4.9% citywide, with 11,309 offenses reported in 1st Quarter 2011 compared to 11,891 offenses reported in 1st Quarter 2010. Robbery, counterfeiting/forgery, larceny theft, fraud, and burglary/breaking & entering offenses all attributed to this 4.9% decrease.

Also notable is the overall 4.1% decrease in burglaries, with a 36.9% decrease in burglary of business. Burglary of residences increased by 108 offenses (7.2%) in the 1st Quarter 2011. There has been a trend in stealing copper from vacant homes that has attributed to this increase. Both North and South Divisions were able to identify suspects in several cases, and several arrests have been made, which has reduced the number of incidents in those particular areas.

Arson increased by eight offenses (29.6%) this quarter compared to 1st Quarter 2010. The majority (54%) of these offenses occurred at residences.

2.5 Crimes Against Society (NIBRS—Group A)

Crimes Against Society figures are an indication of the department’s enforcement efforts and are counted one offense per violation. Enforcement efforts have lead to an overall 3.9% increase in offenses/reports related to Crimes Against Society.

2.6 Other Offenses (NIBRS—Group B)

Group “B” offenses are reported only when an arrest is involved. A Group “B” Arrest Report does not include incident data but uses only data elements that describe the arrestee and the circumstances of the arrest. Group “B” offenses decreased 7.2% overall, with increases in trespass of real property (20.7%) and drunkenness (8%).

Although crime was fairly low during the Super Bowl enforcement period, the increase in drunkenness can partially be attributed to Super Bowl activities. Thirty-one public intoxication arrests were made during the Super Bowl enforcement period.

2.7 Gang Unit Report

A total of 208 gang-related incidents occurred in the 1st Quarter 2011 compared to 315 gang-related incidents in 1st Quarter 2010—a 34% decrease in gang crime.

It should be noted that a single incident may involve multiple offenses. For example, an incident may involve a narcotic violation and an assault offense, which would be documented within one report and then flagged as a gang-related incident. The table below shows the number of offenses within the gang-related incident reports.

What is Gang-Related Crime?

Gang-Related Crime is any criminal act, including but not limited to those, involving gang members or gang associates committed for the benefit or furtherance of any criminal gang.

Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Traditional Summary Report

3.1 1st Quarter 2011 Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Traditional Summary Report

Uniform Crime Report (UCR) Traditional Summary Reporting is a collective effort on the part of jurisdictions throughout the United States to present a nationwide view of crime using eight of the most serious and most commonly reported crimes including Criminal Homicide, Forcible Rape, Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Burglary, Larceny-Theft, Motor Vehicle Theft and Arson, also known as Part 1 crimes. In the Summary Reporting System, simply the number of criminal incidents are counted, as opposed to the more detailed data collected (using a different methodology) through the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS).

Below represents the number of criminal incidents for each Part 1 crime:

Quick Note About Reporting Differences

A significant difference between NIBRS and UCR Traditional Summary Reporting is that for Crimes Against Persons, NIBRS counts the number of victims, while UCR counts the number of incidents, which can result in NIBRS figures being higher than UCR figures depending on the number of victims involved in the incidents. In addition, the definitions for Part 1 offenses used in Summary Reporting are different than the offense definitions used by the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS). Visit <http://www.fortworthpd.com/crime-information/> for details about the differences between NIBRS and UCR Traditional Summary Reporting.

The Fort Worth Police Department submits NIBRS data to the Texas Department of Public Safety (TXDPS), which is then submitted to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). The FBI then converts the NIBRS data into the UCR Traditional Summary Reporting for publication in the annual Crime in the United States. Since the data presented in this report is snapshot data queried on April 18, 2011, data queried before or after this date is apt to change and may vary from other reports.

Department Initiatives Update

The Fort Worth Police Department Super Bowl XLV planning initiative paid off in a big way during Super Week's activities and events across the City. Fort Worth hosted the AFC Champion team at the Omni Hotel, as well as, other major events including the Taste of NFL at the Fort Worth Convention Center, and live ESPN broadcasting in Sundance Square. The Department provided security, traffic control and critical communication with various stakeholders to ensure the week was a major success. There were also no delays in team movement despite the adverse weather conditions. Record snow and ice tested the planning efforts, but the situation was well managed due to advance preparedness that was in place by the planning team. The police had positive interaction with our out-of-town guests.

Even though crime was low partially due to the adverse weather, our department's quick response lead to the arrests of offenders in the following categories:

|-------------------------|-----------|
| Public Intoxication     | 31        |
| Fraud/Credit Card Abuse | 6         |
| Theft                   | 5         |
| Criminal Trespass       | 4         |
| Burglary of Vehicle     | 4         |
| Assaults                | 3         |
| Narcotic Violations     | 3         |
| DWI                     | 2         |
| Prostitution            | 1         |
| Burglary of Residence   | 1         |
| Miscellaneous Offense   | 6         |
| Total Arrests    | 66 |

The Police Department also coordinated with other city departments and outside agencies to ensure the success of Super Bowl XLV in North Texas.

Security Cameras for FWISD Schools

In FY 2009, the Fort Worth ISD and the Fort Worth Police Department collaborated on a Community Oriented Policing Services, Secure Our Schools (COPS-SOS) Grant with the Department of Justice and was awarded a $500,000 grant. The FWISD matched these funds with an additional $500,000 to install security cameras in FWISD high schools and middle schools.

The FWISD is in the process of installing this state-of-the-art video surveillance equipment in all secondary campuses. Approximately 40% of the high school surveillance installations have been completed with more installations scheduled for this summer, including the installations within middle schools.

The cameras assist to deter and quell individual incidents on campus and have already assisted with the retrieval of stolen property that would possibly not have been recovered otherwise. The cameras have led to the arrest of a burglar at a high school.

The funding has also assisted with the purchase of the following:

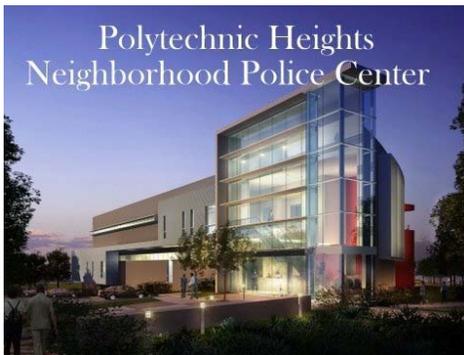

- Laptops for use by the School Security Sergeants to view live surveillance on a daily basis
- Walk through metal detectors to replace units beyond repair, as well as, for the new middle school
- Solar powered graffiti camera, which has already been deployed at multiple sites to deter copper theft and vandalism to campuses.

The program has been very successful. If you would like to learn more about these efforts, please contact Jerry Chandler at 817-392-4219 or Art Cavacos at 817-814-2660.

Polytechnic Heights Neighborhood Center

A ribbon-cutting ceremony was held on March 24, 2011 to celebrate the opening of the award-winning Polytechnic Heights Neighborhood Police Center in east Fort Worth. The 30,074 SF state-of-the-art facility, located at 1100 Nashville, houses the East Division's Patrol offices and the Traffic Division in a new building, but at the same site as what was formerly known as NPD 6. The building has been certified as a Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) facility, and now has a much needed large community meeting room. The Center was partially funded by the Crime Control and Prevention District.

Community Policing Highlights

CODE BLUE

In March 2011, a young female with special needs was reported missing, which prompted an impressive response from our Code Blue members. Thirty-three North Division Code Blue groups responded to aid in the search. Although the young female was later found to be safe, the Fort Worth Police Department would like to thank all that worked on this search.

Clergy and Police Alliance (CAPA)

The North Division Clergy and Police Alliance (CAPA) Team experienced record level activity in call outs, ride-ins and meetings—displaying the devotion and commitment of our men and women of faith in North division whose membership continues to grow.

Personal Situational Awareness

Through Personal Situation Awareness presentations provided by officers, attendees are provided with information to help women recognize abusive or predatory behavior in order to avoid relationships with potentially violent offenders. During 1st Quarter 2011, five presentations were held with over 110 attendees.
